THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

JANUARY 16, 2022 AT 10:30 A.M.

At Grace Cathedral, we require masks to be worn indoors at all services or at any other gatherings taking place here. If you do not have a mask, you can find them on the table near the west wall, as well as at the Cathedral Cloister door.

If you're new here, we'd love to connect with you. Please fill out a visitor information card from the pew rack and drop it in the collection box on your way out today.

Sound equipment for the hearing-impaired is available. Inquire with an usher.

Restrooms are located in the hallway to the west. Next to the nursery you will find a family restroom with a changing table.

A staffed nursery is available today, down the hallway to your right. You can ask an usher to assist you.

Take a minute to peruse our guide to worship in the pew rack. Want to connect with us and learn more? Go to www.gracecathedraltopeka.org.

THE GLORIA: Hymnal S236 (Music found in the front section of the blue book)

John Rutter

Sung by the congregation.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ is the light of the world: Grant that your people, illumined by your Word and Sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshiped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Congregation is seated.

THE FIRST READING: Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the Lord will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Married; for the Lord delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

After the reading, Thanks be to God.

PSALM: 36:5-10

Katie Burk (b. 1990)

Anglican chant sung by the Cathedral Choir

- 5 Your love, O LORD, reaches to the heavens, *
and your faithfulness to the clouds.
- 6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains,
your justice like the great deep; *
you save both man and beast, O LORD.
- 7 How priceless is your love, O God! *
your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings.
- 8 They feast upon the abundance of your house; *
you give them drink from the river of your delights.
- 9 For with you is the well of life, *
and in your light we see light.
- 10 Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, *
and your favor to those who are true of heart.

THE SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

After the reading, Thanks be to God.

HYMN 533: "How Wondrous And Great Thy Works" (Blue Book) Standing as able Tune: Lyons

THE GOSPEL: John 2:1-11

Before the Gospel, Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

After the Gospel, Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us pray to the Lord, the bountiful giver of love and mercy.

Give grace to the Church, to be a crown of glory and a sign to the world. Remember, Lord, those chosen as servant-leaders: Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael, our Presiding Bishop; and Cathleen, our own Bishop. Remember the clergy, people, and ministries of St. Peter's Church in Pittsburg, Kansas and St. Paul's Cathedral in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Guide your people to discern the special gifts that you have given to each and to use them fully in your service. Amen.

To the leaders of this nation and every nation, grant that all skill and wisdom may be rightly used for the advancement of your Kingdom. Take away human pride, and give understanding that all gifts come from you. Amen.

We pray that in our families we may so live that we know you are always among us. Remembering your work through Jesus at a wedding in Cana, we ask you to bless all in our community who are recently married or soon to marry, that they may hold together in love and loyalty all their lives. Have mercy on those who suffer in unhappy marriages, on those who are separated or divorced. Bring healing and reconciliation where marriages are in danger, that love may be restored and promises fulfilled. Amen.

We pray today for those persons and needs for whom our prayers have been asked: Boyd, Judy, Scott, Karen, Georgia, Nancy, Betsy, Craig, Lynne, Glory Kay, Reaona and Doug. As you made wine into water, grant too that our suffering may be transformed into healing. Amen. As we pray for the departed, we remember with thanks all that they gave to the life of the world. Today we lift up in particular Margery Ridgeway, John Mills Neiswanger, Karen Welch, Robert Harold Callahan, Jacob Mohler, George Thomas McDermott, Elizabeth Priest Stauffer, Margaret Patton, Mary Thomas. Grant them joy in the everlasting marriage feast of heaven. Amen.

We pray in the name of Christ, the mystical Bridegroom of his Church.

Celebrant: Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Draw us in the Spirit's tether; For when humbly, in thy name, Two or three are met together, Thou art in the midst of them: Alleluya! Alleluya! Touch we now thy garment's hem. As the brethren used to gather In the name of Christ to sup, Then with thanks to God the Father Break the bread and bless the cup, Alleluya! Alleluya! So knit thou our friendship up. All our meals and all our living Make as sacraments of thee, That by caring, helping, giving, We may true disciples be. Alleluya! Alleluya! We will serve thee faithfully.
