LITURGY OF THE WORD

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT CANDLE

Malcolm Archer (b. 1952)

Cantor Congregation

Bless-ed are you, Sov-reign Lord, God of our an-ces-tors: to you be praise and glo-ry for ev-er!

The Cathedral Choir: You called the patriarchs to live by the light of faith and to journey in the hope of your promised fulfilment. May we be obedient to your call and be ready and watchful to receive your Christ, a lamp to our feet and a light to our path; for you are our light and our salvation.

for you are our light and our sal-va-tion. Bless-ed be God for ev-er.

SALUTATION AND THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST READING: Isaiah 2:1-5

The word that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. In days to come the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills; all the nations shall stream to it. Many peoples shall come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths." For out of Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. He shall judge between the nations, and shall arbitrate for many peoples; they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord!

After the reading, Thanks be to God.

Anglican chant sung by the Cathedral Choir

THE SECOND READING: Romans 13:11-14

You know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us live honorably as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

After the reading, Thanks be to God.

Please stand as able.

HYMN 59: Hark! A Thrilling Voice is Sounding

MERTON

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 24:36-44

Before the Gospel, Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the Mount of Olives, Jesus said to his disciples privately about his coming, "But about that day and hour no one knows, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. For as the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark, and they knew nothing until the flood came and swept them all away, so too will be the coming of the Son of Man. Then two will be in the field; one will be taken and one will be left. Two women will be grinding meal together; one will be taken and one will be left. Keep awake therefore, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. But understand this: if the owner of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour."

After the Gospel, Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

THE NICENE CREED, BCP 358 (Red Book) Standing as able.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

That this season of Advent may be good, holy, and charitable, let us gather our concerns and joys, and together offer them to God.

Silence

When it seems that things are ending, give us the courage to see them as renewing. Let our hearts be lightened by the promise of your Word soon to come and abide among us for ever.

Silence

Help us always to be the Church you intend. Gather, instruct, and feed us; and then send us out in your Name. We remember today St. Andrew's Church, Derby; and St. Paul's Cathedral, Buffalo, New York. Bless every member of this congregation as well as those in positions of leadership within it. Bless those who discern your will for their lives. Bless those in the midst of being formed to serve you.

Silence

Send good news into every heart and life – that a righteous branch is springing forth. Let it ease the suffering of the world. Make this community a haven of peace and refuge, and keep us mindful of its needs.

Silence

Bless the dying. Take into your loving arms those who have gone before us. May they be as precious to you as their memories are to us. We remember especially this day with flowers on the altar: Fred Gibson, Katherine Clough, Adelaide Zanner, Mary Elizabeth Bearman, Lucy Snead, and all the saints we still cherish.

Silence

Help us, when life is at its busiest, to be still so that we can see and hear your gracious Spirit at work around us.

Silence

We make our prayer in the name of the One who was and is and is to come: Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

The Celebrant adds a concluding collect

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of your faithful people is governed and sanctified: Receive our supplications and prayers which we offer before you for all members of your holy Church, that in their vocation and ministry they may truly and devoutly serve you; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

This is an original program by our Readers and is based on actual letters both German and English soldiers sent home to report this miracle. Zachary Cope will join the Grace Readers to provide a musical background. You won't want to miss this short but powerful presentation.

This is the signal to refrain from conversation so that you and others may prepare for worship through prayer, meditation and thoughtful silence.
