THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST READING: Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: "To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth—when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race."

After the reading, Thanks be to God.

PSALM 8 BCP 592, Domine, Dominus noster, Sung by the Cathedral Choir

- 1 O LORD our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!
- 2 Out of the mouths of infants and children *
your majesty is praised above the heavens.
- 3 You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
to quell the enemy and the avenger.
- 4 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,
- 5 What is man that you should be mindful of him? *
the son of man that you should seek him out?
- 6 You have made him but little lower than the angels; *
you adorn him with glory and honor;
- 7 You give him mastery over the works of your hands; *
you put all things under his feet:

- 8 All sheep and oxen, *
even the wild beasts of the field,
9 The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, *
and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.
10 O LORD our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!

THE SECOND READING: Romans 5:1-5

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

After the reading, Thanks be to God.

Please stand as able.

HYMN 371: Thou, whose almighty word

MOSCOW

THE GOSPEL: John 16:12-15

Before the Gospel, Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

After the Gospel, Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us lift up the intentions and hopes of our deepest selves to God as we offer our prayers.

God of wisdom, give to your people discerning minds and open hearts, that they may inhabit fully the body of Christ and join together to fulfill your will. Remember the Church, your own creation, especially Sean, our Presiding Bishop, and Cathleen, our own Bishop. We remember also today the congregations of St. Paul's Church, Marysville, and Cathedral of St. Andrew, Honolulu, Hawaii. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

God of justice, grant to the leaders of this nation and of all nations a love of peace and a yearning for reconciliation. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

God of peace, bring an end to all wars. Bring freedom for the oppressed, food for the hungry, and safety for those in danger. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

God of love, open us to perceive the joys and sufferings in our midst, that we may celebrate with and share the tears of our neighbors. We especially remember today Kay, Kitty, Arceile, Mike, Evelyn, Debbie, Alicia, Nancy, Shirley, Martha, Kay, Dick, Paul, Patrick, Mary, Andy, EKA, and Darrell. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

God of protection and care, we remember today those from our cathedral who are traveling to London. We ask for your hand to be upon them. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

God almighty, give strength to those who fear. Stand with those who are alone. Bring healing to those who are afflicted and hope to those who have no hope. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

God eternal, hold in your care all those who have died and grant that they and we may one day rise on the day of new Creation. We especially remember today Frank F. Hogueland, Frances Louise Hogueland, William Gottlieb Reuter, James "Jim" Bruce Davis, Celeste Vedder McComas, Dr. Marmaduke D. McComas, Jr., Margaret Eagan Salisbury, Louise Smith Sallee, and Hermon E. Van Laer. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

God, we know that loving relationship is the very being of you, and that you have made us in your image that we might know abundant life. We ask these prayers now in the name of the Son who with the Father and Holy Spirit reigns over heaven and earth and across all ages, forever. Amen.
